

International Council of the Aeronautical Sciences

ICAS Honorary Fellow

*Shinya Kobayakawa
Japan*

*Executive Committee 1998-2004
Programme Committee 1995-2004
Finance Sub-Committee, Honors and Awards Committee
Honorary Fellow (Life Member) since 2008
Maurice Roy Medal 2008*

Shinya Kobayakawa received his Bachelor of Aeronautical Engineering (cum laude) in 1958 and his Master of Science in 1959 at the Polytech Institute of Brooklyn (New York City, USA).

He worked for Mitsubishi Heavy Industries Ltd over forty years in the field of Aerodynamics Research, Aircraft design and Programme management, finally at levels of Chief Engineer, General Manager, Board Director and Corporate Advisor.

He was President of Japans Society for Aeronautical and Space Sciences in 1994 and is a Fellow of AIAA. Shinya participated planning and operating the ICAS 2004 Congress in Yokohama, Japan, as Deputy Chairman of the Local Organising Committee.